ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE SET

The court has received correspondence from Jana Sullivan, Operations Manager, Court Blocked Accounts Department, Wells Fargo Bank.

Ms. Sullivan reports that Conservator, William Wickware, presented a court order allowing withdrawal of $3,960.00 payable to Western Dental. According to Ms. Sullivan, Mr. Wickware became irate because the check was not issued to him personally. Mr. Wickware took the cashier's check to three other branches and tried to cash the check.

The court thanks Ms. Sullivan for her prompt report.

IT IS ORDERED scheduling a hearing on October 13, 2004 at 10:00 a.m., before this court, at which time William Wickware shall personally appear and show cause why William Wickware should not be removed as conservator, held in contempt of court or have other sanctions imposed, for attempting to negotiate a check ordered by the court to be made payable to Western Dental.

The hearing shall be held at the following location:

Mr. Wickware shall present at the time of the hearing a receipt from Western Dental showing payment to Western Dental of the check of $3,960.00.

If Mr. Wickware fails to appear for the hearing, a Fiduciary Arrest Warrant will issue for his arrest.

Wells Fargo Bank, through any of its branches, shall not permit Mr. Wickware to cash the check made payable to Western Dental.
